

AIR LABOR TROUBLE IN COLORADO

Victor American Fuel Company's Head Grilled at Investigation by Commission on Industrial Relations

Denver, Dec. 2.—An industrial commission to serve without compensation as the panacea for the industrial ills of the coal fields to which his administration will be heir was suggested by Governor elect George A. Carlson before the federal commission on industrial relations when he was called at the first session today.

One of the functions of the commission he proposed would be the drafting with the assistance of operators and miners, of an equitable employers' compensation act. He corroborated the testimony of Governor Ammons at the opening of the session that the machinery of state government was defective in that administrative heads of departments were appointed by members of the governor's executive staffs and that the chief executive of the state was powerless to control the activities of such administrative heads. Many of such appointees had been openly at variance with the policy of Governor Ammons, it was declared. Attorneys Designated

With the exception of Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, James O'Connell and the successor to Frederick Delano, all of the commissioners were present when Chairman Frank P. Walsh formally opened the first session. Chairman Walsh and John R. Commons, the former a lawyer and the latter professor of economics at the University of Wisconsin and author of the law under which the industrial commission of Wisconsin works, were appointed to represent the general public, Harris Weinstock and S. Thurston Ballard to represent the employers of labor, and John B. Lennon, James O'Connell and A. B. Garretson are the representatives of organized labor.

Governor Ammons, the first witness of the day, testified that the state had made final arrangements to sell the last of the $1,000,000 insurance bonds issued at the special session of the legislature last spring to defray the past indebtedness and future expense of the militia and that he had notified President Wilson. He expected the President to withdraw the federal troops at an early date.

J. C. Osgood chairman of the board of directors of the Victor American Fuel company, told the commission of his unsuccessful efforts to introduce an employers' compensation commission. He declared a majority of mine accidents were due to veteran miners taking chances and said his company had no system of compensation for the injured.

Discussing collective bargaining for labor, Mr. Osgood outlined his attitude.

"A miner knows what wages are paid, the hours and the working conditions at all of the mines," he said, "and he selects the employer he wants to work for. The wages are higher in Colorado, therefore miners come here."

"No store which is considered first class would permit bargaining for prices. It is the same way with an employer. If you do not like the price the store asks, you do not buy. If I do not offer right wages and conditions of employment I get no employees and my mine shuts down. I claim that if men want to work under union conditions there are plenty of places for them to work. It is a man's absolute right to say whether he will work or not and where he shall work."

"Then as an individual bargainer with you, it is take the job or leave it?" asked Mr. O'Connell.

"Just as you purchase in a store or not," retorted Mr. Osgood.

Call Miners' Convention
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 2.—After calling a convention of the Colorado members of the United Mine Workers of America in Denver, beginning next Monday, Dec. 7, the executive board of the international organization adjourned today. The convention of the Colorado miners is called to discuss the strike situation in that state and is expected to result in important developments.

AT HIS FUNERAL SONS CONFESSED THEY KILLED THEIR FATHER

North Yakima, Wash., Dec. 2.—Frank Lenzi, one of the two sons of Victor Lenzi, an Italian rancher whose body was found Nov. 22 on the shore of Mud Lake in the Yakima Indian reservation, is under arrest today following his confession at his father's funeral that he and his brother James had killed their father.

The sons later asserted that the killing was done in self defense, that their father had fired a revolver at James whom Lenzi senior had charged with informing Frank that he had made improper advances to Frank Lenzi's wife.

At the grave the members of the family took an oath to divulge the truth as to the elder Lenzi's death.

Lenzi's sons also asserted that their father three years ago had murdered one Gazzi with whom he had been associated in a land lease, that he was crazed with fear after the killing and repeatedly had threatened the lives of other members of the family.

WILL RAISE ENORMOUS WAR FUND

Declares German Troops Will Stand
Firm in Enemy's Country, Where Their Gallantry Had Carried War

Berlin, Dec. 2.—With only one dissenting vote, that of Herr Liebknecht, socialist, the reichstag today voted a new war credit of 5,000,000,000 marks ($1,250,000,000).

The president of the chamber at the opening of the sitting dwelt in a speech on the unity and patriotism of the German people and commented appreciatively on the large number of members of the reichstag who are now serving the country at the front. In his exposition of the progress of the war, the president said:

"Japan joined our enemies from a desire to seize as booty the monument to German culture in the far east. On the other hand, we have found an ally in Turkey, as all the Moslem people wish to throw off the English yoke and shatter the foundations of England's colonial power. Under the banner of our army and our fleet we will continue."

In an address Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, imperial chancellor, said:

"The emperor is absent with the army, but he has charged me to transmit his best wishes and cordial greetings to the German house of representatives, with whom he knows he is united until death in stress of danger in common concert for the weal of the fatherland."

"Our first thoughts go to the emperor and the army and navy, who are fighting for the honor and greatness of the empire. Full of pride and with unshakable confidence, we look on them and our Austro-Hungarian comrades in arms, who are firmly united to us, to fight and to win great battles with brilliant bravery."

"Our latest ally in the war forced upon us the Ottoman empire, which well knows that if the German empire were destroyed, it, too, would lose its national right to arrange its own destiny. As our enemies have formed a powerful coalition against us, they will, I hope, find that the army of our brave allies reaches the weak spots in their world positions."

The imperial chancellor said the incomparable gallantry of the German troops had carried the war into the enemy's country.

"There we will stand firm," declared the chancellor, "and can regard the future with every confidence. But the enemy's resistance is not broken. We are not yet at the end of our sacrifices. The nation will continue to support these sacrifices with the same heroism as hitherto, for we must and will fight to a successful end our defensive war for right and freedom. We will then remember how our defenseless compatriots in hostile countries were maltreated in a manner which is a disgrace to civilization. The world must learn that none can hurt a hair on the head of a German subject with impunity."

"It is evident to us who is responsible for this greatest of all wars. The apparent responsibility falls on those in Russia who ordered and executed the mobilization of the Russian army; the real responsibility falls on the British government. The cabinet at London could have made the war impossible if it had declared at St. Petersburg that England would not allow a continental war to develop from the Austro-Servian conflict."

Deep seated coughs that resist ordinary remedies require both external and internal treatment. If you buy a dollar bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP you get the two remedies you need for the price of one. There is a HERRICK'S RED PEPPER POROUS PLASTER for the chest, free with each bottle. Sold by Riter Bros. Drug Co.—Adv.

GUTIERREZ TO ENTER MEXICO CITY TODAY

Will Be Installed as President in National Palace by Villa and Zapata

Washington, Dec. 2.—Provisional President Gutierrez will enter Mexico City tomorrow and be installed in the national palace there, according to official telegrams to the state department today.

Villa is at acuba, a suburb of Mexico City where it is believed he conferred with Zapata. All today's reports to the state department indicate that he and his chiefs are working in harmony in support of Gutierrez. Latest dispatches from Tampico to the state department say the Carranza forces have reoccupied Panuco, which previously had been in the hands of irresponsible bandits. The reports added that the Carranza garrison was maintaining order and had given guarantees to foreigners.

President Wilson wrote to Secretary Garrison today, paying tribute to the "efficiency, courage and discretion" of General Funston and his forces during the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

Heartburn is a symptom of indigestion. Take a dose of HERBINE in such cases. The pain disappears instantly. The bowels operate speedily and you feel fine, vigorous and cheerful. Price 50c. Sold by Riter Bros. Drug Co.—Adv.

TO CLEAN IRONS

The best iron cleaner is a piece of wire gauze. It is better than sandpaper, for the dirt falls through the holes, and it is not rubbed into the iron again. The ironing board should be covered with a cloth on which there are no seams or patches, as these would mark fine linen, etc. The best board covering is flannel, tacked down and then a removable cotton cover.

If your elbow when ironing is bent away from your body at an upward and outward angle that shows that the table is too high. Have a little platform made and notice the difference.

Children take BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP willingly because it tastes nice. There is not a better remedy anywhere for children's coughs, hoarseness and bronchitis. It's a good medicine and easy to take.
